POLY WINS IN WATER

Runs Up 31 Points to De Witt Clinton's 13.

De Witt Clinton's 13.

De Witt Clinton proved no match for the Polytechnic Preparatory School in a dual swimming meet held at the West Sixtieth Street baths yeaterday. After going through the season undefeated, Clinton, minus the services of several of its strongest swimmers, went down to a one-sided defeat, 31 to 13. The victory of Poly Prep gives it the all-scholastic championship of the greater city, as it salate is clean.

Five events were held, but Clinton failed to take a single first place. Only four second places went to well west of the victor.

The summaries follow:

The movement for public golf links is spreading to a degree little dreamed of a year ago, although at the time attention was called to the fact that there was such a demand and that ultimately it would have a telling effect. The effect has been felt, but the end of the movement has not been reached by any means. Peghaps the best example of it may be taken in the situation within the confines of greater New York. In The Tribune of last Friday and well known golfer, whose name was not mentioned for reasons of his own, pointed out that there was such a demand and that ultimately it would have a telling effect.
